

BISHOP WORDSWORTH'S SCHOOL FOUNDATION
APPLICATION FOR BURSARY AWARD

Bishop Wordsworth's School Foundation (the Foundation) has been created to provide bursaries to encourage children to apply for admission to the School, to support costs of uniform, extracurricular activities and transport for those at the School and to provide grants to the School that will improve the overall experience of pupils.

This form is for use by:

Parents and guardians seeking financial help towards the costs of preparing their child for admission to the School

Parents and guardians of pupils already at the school who are struggling to meet some costs of their child's school activities.

Parent/guardian name (the applicant)
Address
Contact number
E-mail address
Pupil name
Current school year

Please explain below what costs the Bursary is intended to cover, including amounts.

Pupils not yet at Bishop Wordsworth's School. The Bursary is to be used to help pay for the costs and expenses of attending courses or meetings (including Open Days) aimed at helping the Applicant prepare for any BWS test or assessment. The total Bursary for pre-entry applicants cannot exceed £100.

Pupils already at Bishop Wordsworth's School (or with confirmed place). The Bursary is to be used to help towards purchasing school uniform, attending and participating in official school activities and transport to and from the school for any school-based activities.
