This is an excellent opportunity to join a highly successful department in which our outstanding examination results reflect our commitment to teaching and learning.

We are looking for a well-qualified and enthusiastic Head of Chemistry to join our large, well-resourced and successful department. The subject has a high profile in the school and the successful candidate will be expected to teach across the full age range, from Year 7 through to Year 13, teaching their subject specialism from Yr10 upwards including A Level. The ability to offer Biology would be an advantage.

The successful candidate will need to have a real drive and enthusiasm for Science and will be fully committed to the extra-curricular programme here at Bishop's including active involvement in the Science Faculty enrichment programme, playing a key role in this high achieving and successful department and in school life in general. You will be well supported by an experienced team as you work to raise attainment levels and offer an engaging curriculum experience.

We will offer you:

- A comprehensive program of CPD
- The support of a highly experienced friendly team
- Well-motivated and able students
- Engaging curriculum experience
- Extra-curricular and international trips and visits
- Access to onsite gym and sport facilities
- Teachers Pension Scheme
