

SHARING YOUR INTENTIONS

Firstly, we should say that you are not obliged to tell us that you have made provision for Bishop Wordsworth's in your will. However, if you do, we can ensure that you receive appropriate thanks and the opportunity to join our pledgers' group, the 1890 Society. We want to ensure that we fully understand how you wish to support Bishop Wordsworth's through a gift in your will, as and when the time comes.

Please tick the boxes appropriate to you. The information that you provide is not legally binding.

____ I (have already included/plan to include) a gift in my will to Bishop Wordsworth's Grammar School.
____ I would like Bishop Wordsworth's to contact me to discuss the possibility of leaving a gift in my will.

Which option best describes the way you would like to remember the School in your will?

A percentage of your estate. Details:

.....

A specific sum of money. Details:

.....

A reversionary gift. In this case, your spouse or other named person(s) would hold the gift for their lifetime, after which it would revert to Bishop Wordsworth's. You may appreciate the feeling of security that this brings in ensuring that the needs of your loved ones are met.

Information on your legacy gift:

.....

Name:

.....

Name at time of studying at Bishop Wordsworth's (if different):

.....

Address:

.....

Telephone:

Email address:

Those who make a legacy gift automatically join the 1890 Society, a group of supporters who choose to give to the School via their wills. If you would prefer not to join this group, please tick here ____

If you would like your legacy gift to be anonymous, please tick here ____

Please return this form to:

Caroline Popham, Head of Alumni Relations and Development, Bishop Wordsworth's School, Exeter Street,
Salisbury, SP1 2ED

Thank you for sharing your intentions with us.